

CASA LA QUINTA

Casa La Quinta sits on a quiet corner on a beautiful street of Ojo de Agua. Entering this French Provençal-style home begins with a charming stone pathway surrounded by a lush garden that leads to the main floor of the house.

The kitchen is very large, with a grand fireplace flanked by windows that overlook the quiet street. The room is rustic, with space for both a large table and living area.

Off the kitchen, a hallway with office nook leads into the spacious master bedroom suite, with a luxurious bath. From the master bedroom French doors lead to an indoor/outdoor sitting area reminiscent of a greenhouse.

The large dramatic living room, with a high vaulted ceiling, has tall French doors leading onto the central garden. The room is both grand and elegantly rustic. The tall ceilings are a perfect match for the vast hanging chandelier. A large carved fireplace greets you on the far wall facing the doors.

From the central garden, a charming staircase leads up to a patio with a wonderful vista that highlights the distant mountains. Two bedrooms with shared bath are the perfect private guest quarters.

This home is a delightful opportunity to enjoy a little South of France in the very desirable neighborhood of Ojo de Agua.
